

Education & Training Department

Training Report

September 2008 to August 2009

Entry Requirements

- The LPGas Safety Association has to ensure that ALL Gas Installers in this Industry, perform to the required SANS standard, and have the technical skill & knowledge to perform the required tasks.

Competence

- To ensure the competence of Candidate's attending any of the LPGas Courses, we have instituted a minimum entry level.

Domestic Installer Course

The candidate must have a minimum of:-

- * Literacy NQF 1 (Gr 9)
- * Math's NQF 1 (Gr 9)
- * 6 months piping and/or workshop experience

Portable Cylinder Filling/Handling Course

Filling Of Portable Gas Cylinder

This Unit Standard has now been re-registered with the CHIETA and our training will be aligned, accordingly

Before doing this course, the learner should have demonstrated competence against:-

- * Numeracy at Level 3 (Grade 7)
- * Literacy at Level 3 (Grade 7)
- * Introduction to fire prevention & fire fighting

The Beneficiaries

THE CONSUMER

~ who is frequently affected by cable theft etc. & the lack of a reliable electricity supply

TRAINING FIGURES ~ SEPTEMBER 2008 TO AUGUST 2009

LPG Courses	Gauteng	Kwazulu Natal	Cape Region	Free State	Total
Domestic Installer	102	60	91	16	269
Commercial Installer	24 GP & KZN combined		23	0	47
Maintenance fitters	18	15	25	0	58
Cylinder/Forklift Filling/Handling/Inspection	84	24	29		137
Autogas Filling	0	9	0	0	9
Driver Training	0	26	0	0	26
Safety Training	36	6	0	0	42

QUESTIONS??

THANK YOU

